

AWAIT WORD FROM PRESIDENT HUERTA

Official Washington Still Maintains Secrecy Regarding Mexican Situation

USING EXTREME SECRECY

Diplomats Work With Secrecy and It Is Believed That Only When Some Real Conclusion Is Reached Report Will Be Made

REBELS CLOSE IN ON PIEDRAS NEGRAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Waiting for word from Provisional President Huerta—this was the attitude of official Washington today in the Mexican situation. Administration officials still refused to shed any light on the last communication which conveyed to General Huerta the desire of the United States that he eliminate himself from the tangled situation. His attitude is that to discuss publicly the delicate phases of the problem might defeat conditions being sought. The feeling in the national capital is none the less one of tense interest especially as to what course will be pursued if General Huerta declines to abdicate. It was evident from those who talked with President Wilson about the situation that he was calmly awaiting developments. He has told his friends that he would continue to try to solve the situation by peaceful means and would not be disturbed by predictions of armed intervention. The belief is general here that the situation is being worked out with extreme secrecy in diplomatic channels and that only when some tangible conclusion has been reached will there be any official announcements.

There was no collective opinion in official circles as to what Huerta's reply to the American representations might be. No venture predictions were made, so far as could be learned, no intimations had been received as to Huerta's future attitude.

El Moral Surrenders.
Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 5.—Constitutionalist forces are closing in on Piedras Negras and tonight Mexican government troops are sleeping on their arms in anticipation of an attack. Today the village of El Moral, five miles south of the border, was surrendered to the rebels, the federal troops there retreating to Piedras Negras.

Early tonight the constitutionalists were reported within five miles of Piedras Negras and advancing from all sides. Piedras Negras, the former provisional capital of the constitutionalists, was abandoned to the federalists several weeks ago.

Explains Cruiser's Despatch.
Washington, Nov. 5.—Secretary Daniels this afternoon explained that the despatch of the cruiser Chester was part of his plans to substitute cruisers for the heavier battleships in Mexican waters so that the latter might resume practice and maneuvers. The change, he said, would be made gradually as cruisers are not available on the east coast in any number. The Chester, owing to her light draft, is especially adapted to service in the small harbor at Vera Cruz and would be available for service in the protection of foreigners at Tampico, or other Mexican gulf ports, which cannot be closely approached by the larger battleships. It is the usual intention of the navy department to order home one battleship upon the Chester's arrival.

It will be necessary to pick up enough enlisted men from the battleship North Dakota at the New York navy yard and elsewhere to bring the Chester's crew up to the full complement. It is expected that it can be done in twenty-four hours. As the Chester is one of the fastest ships of the navy, having made more than 26 1/2 knots on her trial trip, she should reach Vera Cruz by next Monday evening or Tuesday morning.

TWO DIE IN EAST CHICAGO AS RESULT OF CELEBRATION
One Man Is Beaten to Death With Bottle and Another Is Probably Fatally Shot.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Celebration of the victory of the Citizens' Ticket in East Chicago, Ind., today led to an affray in which one man was probably fatally shot and another is in a dying condition from being beaten with bottles. Joseph Churilla, an adherent of the losing side, was attacked and beaten when he interrupted the cheers of a crowd of victors in a saloon. Churilla fired two shots from where he lay on the ground and Alexander Knauer fell with a bullet in his leg and one in his abdomen.

WEDNESDAY IN CONGRESS.

McREYNOLDS CONCLUDES FINAL ARGUMENTS

ARGUES FOR DISSOLUTION OF INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY

Attorney General Asks That Interlocutory Degree Be Entered by Court Declaring Harvester Company a Monopoly in Restraint of Trade.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 5.—Attorney General James McReynolds, concluding final arguments for dissolution of the International Harvester company before the United States district court this afternoon asked that an interlocutory degree be entered by the court declaring the harvester concern a monopoly in restraint of trade and further asked that the defendants be given a reasonable time and only a reasonable time, to submit to the court a proper plan of reorganization.

"When such decree has been entered," Mr. McReynolds said, "the government will be ready to pass upon the character of the reorganization plan."

"But it is the view of the government that this company must be cut up in separate and distinct units. This must be done in such way that the stockholders of the different parts must be distinct. In other words we insist that it is an economic impossibility for companies owned by the same people to furnish bona fide competition."

During delivery of his closing argument Attorney General McReynolds scored Cyrus McCormick, whom he called the founder of harvester "trust" because Mr. McCormick had not appeared in the case. Mr. Reynolds reviewed the career of the harvester company from the time of its organization ten years ago, pointing out to the court specific instances where he alleged law had been violated and which he averred furnished more than an ample basis for an order of dissolution under the Sherman law.

Attorney Reviews Finances.
"The story of this powerful monopoly marking time or losing business here and there as related by some of the counsel for the defense is absurd," the attorney general said. "Take the finances of this concern in 1902 and take them now and what have we?"

"In 1902 the total business done by the International Harvester company was fifty-three million dollars; in 1912 it had increased to one hundred and twenty-five million dollars; in the same length of time its capital stock had increased from $120,000,000 to $163,000,000 and between 1903 and 1911 the latest figures available, the assets of the company had increased from $130,000,000 to $223,000,000. Those figures in terse form tell the story of the rapid growth of the power of this powerful concern."

"When the McCormick, the Deering, the Plano, the Champion, the Milwaukee and the Osborne companies entered this organization then this monopoly automatically was born. The existing competition between these six companies the absolute leaders in the country was wiped out and in its place a monopoly existed as plainly as decisions of the supreme court could define it."

"For having come together in this organization what was the result? We find that the International Harvester company in its first year had the following percentages of the nation's business in the varied lines: Ninety-eight per cent of the binders, 95 per cent of the corn binders, 92 per cent of the mowers, 85 per cent of the rakes and 40 per cent of the twine."

He looked upon these facts that the concern had the absolute power to fix prices.

The case was taken under advisement.

CONFESSES MURDER OF CHICAGO BARTENDER

Joseph Reinlander Admits He Killed Ed Cooney While Under Influence of Cocaine.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Joseph R. Reinlander, today confessed to the murder of Ed Cooney, a bartender, while under the influence of cocaine. He received an indeterminate sentence of from one year to life. Reinlander who is a young man came to Chicago about six months ago from his home in the Kentucky hills.

"I drank a lot and I guess I went to the bad," he told the court. "Cooney taught me to use cocaine. I was at his home on August 16th, and Mrs. Cooney told me she was going to a picnic. I hit her when she insisted she was going. Cooney came and I shot him down. I didn't know what I was doing. I'm sorry but I don't suppose it makes any difference now."

GOV. DUNNE REMOVES TWO BOARD MEMBERS

F. R. ROBINSON OF OREGON AND C. H. MAY OF PEORIA REMOVED

Republican Members of Board of Managers of Pontiac Reformatory Are Ousted "For Neglect of Duty and Incompetency in Office."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 5.—Frank R. Robinson, of Oregon, and Charles H. May, of Peoria, Republican members of the board of managers of the Pontiac reformatory who last week withdrew their names from the report of the board criticism, were this afternoon removed from the board by Governor Dunne. The governor named no successors.

The charges of incompetency and neglect of duty are given as the reasons for the removal. In the notice of removal, Governor Dunne says: "After mature consideration of the report of the board of managers of the Illinois State reformatory, made to the governor and which was signed by you and each of you after careful consideration on your part, and realizing that the evil conditions disclosed that the report existed for an extended period of time while you were members of the board of managers of said institution, I am forced to conclude that you were negligent of your duty during your incumbency or otherwise incompetent or you would have discovered such evil conditions and remedied the same."

"I therefore deem it my duty to remove you and hereby do remove you and each of you from the office of member of the board of managers of the Illinois State reformatory for neglect of duty and incompetency in office, such removal to take effect from this date."

About 100 invitations were sent out, approximately 250 of them being directed to residents of Washington. The invitation list is necessarily limited to the capacity of the east room where the wedding will take place. The ambassadors and ministers in the diplomatic corps, members of the cabinet and supreme court of the United States and prominent officials constitute the greater part of the invitation list, although many personal friends of both the Wilson and Sayre families are coming from various parts of the country.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 5.—A warrant charging Melchior Lueben president of the First National bank of Sutton, Neb., with embezzlement was issued from Federal court here today and the banker's arrest ordered. The Sutton bank was closed yesterday at the order of National Bank Examiner Seybold after a shortage was discovered.

The fact that their abandonment of a stranded schooner near Nantucket and the loss of life was unnecessary was not known to the crew until word reached them tonight that the schooner was in port at New Bedford practically unharmed. The survivors of the Parker's crew were picked up by the lumber schooner Tifton, thirty miles off Nantucket Sunday morning after they had been afloat in dories twenty-four hours without food or drink. The Annie M. Parker carried off her course by adverse winds, went aground on Rose and Crown Shoal off the Nantucket coast Saturday morning. The vessel was whacked by waves and the crew agreed with Captain Nelson that the hope for

REED INTRODUCES ENTIRELY NEW PLAN

New Feature Is Tentatively Written Into the Administration Currency Measure

CENTRAL BANK EQUIVALENT

Scheme Would Centralize One Half of the Reserves to Be Held by Regional Banks in the Proposed New System

OWEN WILL OPPOSE PLAN TODAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—An entirely new feature was tentatively written into the administration currency bill today by the senate committee after a full day of heated wrangle. The new plan was characterized by Chairman Owen, chief administration supporter in the committee as equivalent to a central bank. He said that the committee adjourned with the matter "up in the air."

The new scheme would provide for the centralization of one half of the reserves to be held by the regional banks in the proposed system. This proportion would be placed under the complete control of the federal reserve board and would be located in Washington to be administered for the aid and convenience of the entire banking system.

Will Oppose Plan Today.

As finally voted upon, the proposition was a modification of a plan proposed by Senator Reed of Missouri, who suggested it as a means of composing the wide differences among members of the committee. Senator Reed and Senator Hitchcock joined with the Republicans in voting for the plan which was opposed by senators Owen, Pomerene, Hollis, O'Gorman and Shafroth.

Senator Owen was plainly agitated over the progress of affairs in the committee today. After the vote on the Reed proposal he declared that if given an opportunity he would demonstrate that the plan would not work. Senator Reed declared he was willing to be convinced and it was arranged that Senator Owen should make an argument on the point tomorrow.

"This plan would deplete the resources of the various regional banks to a degree which the supporter of the scheme have not thought of," Senator Owen said after the committee adjourned tonight. "I will undertake to show that the regional banks would be hampered and restricted in their re-discount operation if this plan prevails. The matter is still pending."

After the vote on the Reed amendment the administration forces endeavored again to put through the administration plan for bank control and ownership of the regional banks but quit in a tangled argument. This point will be taken up again tomorrow.

Talks of a possible Democratic caucus to consider the progress being made by the committee quitted today and members of the committee took the position that a caucus would not hasten the disposition of the bill. Administration senators however, looked more dubiously than ever on the situation following today's vote in the committee and some action on the part of the white house or senate leaders was looked for.

President Wilson sent for Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, Republican member of the banking and currency committee tonight and discussed the situation with him for an hour.

The senator declined to talk of his visit but it is understood that he has a compromise plan in which Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia is said to have been endeavoring to force many Democrats and which would retain most of the features of the house bill. It is believed that the president told Mr. Weeks just what parts of the house bill he considered fundamental and essential and what features he regarded as

STATE RESTS CASE AGAINST DONAHOE

PROSECUTION CLOSES WITH TESTIMONY OF CLARENCE S. FUNK

Witness Declares He Never Saw Mrs. Henning Before She Testified in This Trial—Counsel For Steifel Attempts to Have Charges Against Him Dismissed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The state today rested its case against Daniel Donahoe and Isaac Steifel, the lawyer and detective charged with having conspired to defame Clarence S. Funk. Funk put the finishing touch today on the testimony for the prosecution by taking the witness stand and declaring that he never saw Mrs. John W. Henning before she testified in this trial and disclosed what the state alleged to be the motive for the attacks on Funk by repeating a portion of his testimony in the Lorimer investigation. The court would not allow Mr. Funk to testify that he had been watched by detectives, one of whom told him that he was in the employ of Edward Hines. The names of Hines and Lorimer were brought in when Funk reiterated his sensational statement before the Lorimer investigating committee in which he declared that Hines had asked him for $10,000 toward a $100,000 fund that had been used to "put Lorimer over."

The reference to the Lorimer case was brief. John C. Henning, the former helloboy, and his wife, Josephine O'Reilly Henning, had testified on previous days that they had conspired to accuse Funk falsely of improper relations with Mrs. Henning and accused Donahoe of directing the conspiracy. Henning and wife told of their flight and life in hiding after the collapse of the suit against Funk.

Other testimony was given by hotel helloboy who said they had been invited to testify falsely against Funk. An attempt was made by counsel for Steifel to have the charges against him dismissed on the ground that he was insufficiently implicated by the testimony. The motion was denied.

The defense was not ready to proceed this afternoon and will open its case tomorrow.

Will Not Go On Stand.

Donahoe and Steifel will not go on the witness stand, counsel said tonight. The testimony of Mr. and Mrs. Henning will be read in an attempt to prove contradictions in their stories and several character witnesses will be produced. The defense will have no other testimony according to the present program. It is believed that the case will be given to the jury Saturday.

WEALTHY LUMBERMAN MUST PAY ROCKFORD GIRL $17,400

Jury in Breach of Promise Case Favors Plaintiff in Verdict—Edwards May Appeal Case.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 5.—The trial of the breach of promise suit of Miss Ada M. Cox of Rockford, Ill., against William B. Edwards, millionaire lumberman, ended today with a verdict of $17,400 for the plaintiff. When the verdict was announced today Mrs. C. G. Higbee of St. Paul, who sat by Miss Cox throughout the trial extended her hand to the jury. Afterward Mrs. Higbee and Miss Cox shook hands with the members of the jury and thanked them for the verdict.

Attorney Thomas R. Kane for Edwards said it was too early to make public the intention of the defense as to appealing the case but that attorneys for Mr. Edwards felt that the verdict was excessive.

Judge Dickson allowed a stay of sixty days for entering the judgment.

EFFORT TO RESUME SERVICE IN VAIN

Nine Men Are Badly Hurt and Street Car Demolished as Result of Attempt to Run Cars

BIG CROWD SURROUNDS CAR

Crowd of Several Thousand Persons Blocks Progress of Car in Indianapolis—Motor-Man Is Most Seriously Injured

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 5.—An effort to resume street car traffic which has been tied up since last Friday night by a strike resulted today in the serious injury of seven strike-breakers and two policemen and the entire demolition of the car. A crowd of several thousand persons, many of them armed with bricks surrounded the car and prevented progress while a downpour of missiles from the roofs and windows of buildings along the route threatened the lives of the strike breakers and police. Indications were tonight that the militia would be called out tomorrow. A committee of seven of the civic and commercial organizations presented an unanimous request to Governor Ralston asking for troops and stating the organizations would share the responsibility for the action.

While Governor Ralston would not state what action he would take he intimated that his reason for not calling the troops at once was that they could not be mobilized before tomorrow morning and that he feared that the announcement would result in a night of lawlessness.

Fears "Desperate Characters."
The request for troops came after the governor had spent the morning in conference with the brigadier of the state and the county and city authorities.

"There are a great many people here who are not working men," said the governor, "and many of them are evidently desperate characters."

The strike-breakers injured in today's rioting who were able to travel returned to Chicago tonight at the expense of the labor union. When John Sullivan, motorman of the car and the most seriously hurt was knocked to the floor the others surrendered and agreed to leave Indianapolis. A number of strike sympathizers went back to the wrecked car later in the day to remove the car from the tracks and block further traffic on the line. They were dispersed when a riot call brought fifty policemen to the spot. Most of the cars which were deserted on the streets when the strike was called, have been removed from the rails and will prevent any traffic on the downtown lines until replaced.

Another death due to the strike resulted when Thomas Charlton who was shot during the Louisiana barn riots yesterday died today.

Submit New Proposition.
A new proposition from the striking motormen and conductors in which they waive recognition of the newly formed union, was tonight submitted to Governor Ralston by W. G. Beatty, president of the Central labor Union, representing the men. The demand to the employees that the union be recognized by the Indianapolis Terminal and Transfer company has been the main objection the company has made to the first terms submitted by its men. The men, however, still demand higher wages, shorter hours and arbitration of all further differences. They agree that a committee of three shall form the arbitration board.

The terms submitted to the governor demand that all the strikers be taken back into the employ of the company and that the men shall have a yearly contract.

Governor Ralston presented the new proposition to Robert I. Todd, president of the company. Mr. Todd refused to comment on the terms.

VON KLEIN JURY DISAGREES.
Portland, Ore., Nov. 5.—The jury in the case of Ed Von Klein of Chicago charged with having robbed Miss Ethel Newcomb of San Francisco of her jewels after he had lured her into an invalid marriage reported a disagreement today and was discharged. This was Von Von Klein's second trial. The first jury also disagreed. He will be next tried on an indictment charging polygamy.

SYLVIA'S RUSE FOOLS LONDON POLICEMEN

BY CLEVER STRATEGEM MISS PANKHURST IS ENABLED TO SPEAK

Announces the Formation of a Volunteer Corps, Organized Under Command of a Boer War Veteran, For the Protection of Militant Suffragettes and Labor Unionists.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—By a clever stratagem, which completely hoodwinked the large force of police sent to prevent her from speaking, Miss Sylvia Pankhurst was tonight enabled to announce at the Bow Baths in the East End of London the formation of a volunteer corps, organized under command of Captain Sir Francis Vane, a Boer War veteran, for the protection of militant suffragettes and labor unionists.

Miss Zelle Emerson of Jackson, Mich., presided over the gathering. Just as the meeting was called to order a statement was made that the residence of George Lansbury, former Socialist member of parliament and a warm supporter of the militant suffragettes, was surrounded by police. The crowd rushed from the baths and found a large number of foot and mounted police around Lansbury's house with a taxi-cab in front of the entrance. Mr. Lansbury appeared on the scene and was uproariously greeted. The report was spread that Sylvia Pankhurst was to be arrested. The lights in the house vanished and a woman rushed from the doorway and sprang into the taxi-cab which surrounded by mounted police proceeded to Beth-nale Green. Then Miss Daisy Lansbury, daughter of the ex-Socialist member stepped out, much to the discomfort of the police.

Meanwhile Miss Pankhurst entered the baths practically unobserved. The only disorder was caused by an attack by the women on a few reporters whom they suspected of being detectives. Mr. Lansbury and Sir Francis Vane followed Miss Pankhurst to the platform. The Boer veteran explained that he proposed to establish a labor training corps.

Waving aloft a huge knotted club Sir Francis said he was prepared to use that weapon where-over he saw women injured and in labor dispute or where-over the oppressed needed aid. The general of the organization will be drawn from officers who have seen war, both men and women are eligible for the ranks.

Miss Pankhurst said the plan was based on the Ulster model and she expected the same immunity from government interference as Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader enjoyed.

When Miss Pankhurst left the meeting she was surrounded by a body guard of East Enders and made her escape after a lively battle with the police, who were compelled to draw their clubs.

The crowd retaliated with sticks and the result was that several of the helligerers were injured, among them Miss Emerson, who was knocked down and bruised about the head. She, too, escaped arrest, being carried away by sympathizers.

Pleased With Attitude

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst today expressed her pleasure at the attitude and the activity of women at the option elections yesterday in southern Illinois. About 15,000 women went to the polls and nearly 80 per cent of them voted against the saloon.

"It means that it is only a question of time when women will drive the liquor traffic from the state," Mrs. Pankhurst said.

Mrs. Pankhurst took with her a small bag of jewelry contributed last night when a collection was taken at the institutional church (colored) where she spoke.

TRAVELS IN RUSSIA.

(By S. W. Nichols.)

Other Sights.

We visited the art gallery, or museum, of Alexander III, father of the present czar, and found it contained a goodly number of works of art. There were many choice paintings and some statuary which was quite meritorious.

One day as we were strolling along we met the royal carriage, being driven by a couple of horses, as no one was in the vehicle. The men were richly dressed and they sat on the box as if conscious of their importance, but I guess many people have enjoyed a ride in a plain buggy or phaeton as much as the great people in their costly rig. I noticed in conspicuous letters over one store, "Walk Over Shoes," while our cash registers are well known universally used. American sewing machines are largely sold here and also typewriters from our land and in the agricultural districts they send to us for machinery.

Last evening we saw how they manage a fire in this city. Men were at work on the great dome of St. Isaac's cathedral, when smoke was seen issuing from the place where they had been at work. It was in the evening after the men had gone thought it was dark. It is probable the smoke was from materials the men were using being in fire as there was hardly enough inflammable matter up there to burn. The first engine was soon on the scene and was followed by hook and ladder trucks, but the fire was so very high up that no hose could be gotten to it and it amounted to but little at best, though smoke kept appearing right along. More and more of department came, some rigs with two horses, some with three and some with four, but they were always abreast and generally fine animals. The firemen were a study. All wore heavy, bright brass helmets, just as we see on the knights of old, the ornament rising from behind and towering to the top of the helmet. They wore plain, black clothes and high top boots with pants inside. The engines and apparatus generally looked rather old style and not especially strong, but on the other hand I have an idea that fires here are rare, for I see hardly any house built of inflammable material, which is no doubt not permitted.

After projecting about a deal, blowing the bugle a lot and doing lots of other things the men managed to get up to the fire with their chemical apparatus, carried on their backs, and extinguished the fire in a few minutes, as it had caught, as stated, among some plank and materials which had been taken up in repairing the dome. They threw down the stuff and it lies there now and I was informed that the total damage was $56.

Our Greatest Treat or Privilege.

There are a few things in this world which appeal to me with peculiar force and inestimable importance. I have often said that the one thing in all the universe I wanted to see most was Jacob's well, for it is the only spot we know was occupied by our blessed master while He was on earth. The exact place of the crucifixion and tomb are uncertain, though Gordon's calvary has a good many arguments in its favor and defenders of the Church of Holy Sepulcher insist that it is the true spot, but nothing positive is known.

Next to Jacob's well the old church at Leyden, Holland, appealed to me, for it was there that John Robinson preached to the departing pilgrims about to leave for the new world. In the wall of the church is a tablet to his memory and near by is the house in which he lived and that and the church I saw and a wedding ceremony in the latter.

One of the rare and absolutely priceless possessions of Christendom is the Tischenford manuscript of the Bible. As is well known, the Bible was first written by hand, as printing with movable types was not invented till almost fifteen hundred years after the birth of our Savior. The original manuscripts are lost and the older, those in existence, the more valuable. One of the choicest is in the Vatican library at Rome, but it is incomplete; another rests in the library of the British museum and is called the Alexandrian code, but the most precious of all is in the imperial library in this city and to see it is a rare privilege.

An eminent Greek and biblical scholar named Tischenford determined to find if possible a better manuscript than any yet known and he acted accordingly. In the early days of the church there was great persecution and the sacred manuscripts were also an object of attack and to save them from destruction the fathers fled with them to remote places, where they would be free from enemies and some went to the region of Mt. Sinai and there they remained and took with them a priceless treasure, a copy of the holy scriptures and several incomplete parts. Later a monastery was established there and so carefully was it guarded that admission to it was only by a big bucket let down to an acceptable person and drawn up by the monks.

To this place Tischenford went and stayed a long time without securing what he had hoped to get. One day he saw in a waste basket some parchments or pieces and picking up one of them saw it was a copy of a part of the Bible and at once wanted to get more and showed so much anxiety that the monks at once put out of the way all they could find and the poor seeker at last went away discouraged. It was fifteen years later, I think, that he made a second attempt and meanwhile other jealous nations were watching to see if he had accomplished anything and it was freely remarked that if Tischenford failed it was of no use for any one else to try.

He went again to the monastery and stayed around till discouraged, not getting anything he wanted whatever till one evening he had about decided to go and was conversing with one of the monks and casually mentioned what he had hoped to find, when the prelate remarked that he had in his cell something of that kind which might be desirable and he would let the visitor have it. Taking care this time not to let his feelings be known he went along and the monk took down a large bundle wrapped in a red cloth and handed it to the eager man in waiting, who took it carelessly as if of little consequence and going to his room he carefully closed the door and gave way to transport of joy for there before him lay a treasure absolutely priceless, a manuscript of the Bible written in the fourth century.

The discovery soon became known to the world and great excitement and enthusiasm resulted and the manuscript was eagerly examined by eminent scholars, who were delighted to find such a treasure. It was properly claimed by the Russian government and now rests in this city in the imperial library, probably the most valued possession of the sort in this kingdom and so carefully is it guarded that access to it is very difficult to obtain and many go away disappointed. I determined to use every possible effort to get a look at the precious document, though I felt it was well nigh useless to try, but went to the United States consulate first and were very courteously received when we stated our errand. The secretary said he feared we had attempted something impossible, as he had gone to the director in authority and taken with him ex-President Angell of Michigan university and also an eminent Greek scholar, who was extremely anxious to see the precious article.

They were bidden come next day and the next day the three went with anxious hearts but were told that they could not see the manuscript, so Dr. Angell and the Greek professor had to leave the city without a sight of the much desired object. Another trouble that confronted us was the fact that the library was not open that day and would not be till Friday, the time we were to leave, so it seemed we were doomed to disappointment. The consul secretary gave us a letter and suggested that it might be well to call on the ambassador and get a letter from him, as he was higher up and would command more respect, so to the ambassador we went and again were most kindly treated. We stated our object and the secretary gave us scant encouragement, but we were supplied with the desired document and started for the imperial library building with anything but joyous anticipations for a sight of that manuscript was to me worth far more than all the gorgeous palaces and cathedrals. We went to the main entrance, but it not being the day for admission the guard told us to apply at a side door and see if we could get in. The guide took us around the building and we were ushered into a suite of private offices in which several grave and dignified men were at work. The place was redolent with the odor of ancient documents and precious archives and not very light or inviting. Through the guide we stated our object and manifested much anxiety regarding it. Our letters were taken to an office in an apartment beyond and we waited during what seemed to us an interminable time and with faint hopes of accomplishing what so many far more eminent and influential had been unable to do there.

Finally a door was opened and we were motioned to follow, which we did into an inner apartment and there we saw a grave and dignified gentleman standing by a large table and before him the object of our desire. I actually could hardly believe my eyes. Was I dreaming or was I really in the presence of the Tischenford manuscript of the holy Bible? To be certain we had the guide ask again and again and the reply assured us and the appearance of the leaves also tallied with the description given by the eminent scholar who brought it to light. It is carefully kept in a metal box, especially prepared for the purpose and in the bottom of the box and showing up all around is the identical red cloth in which it was wrapped when Tischenford first saw it.

The leaves were of the finest vellum, about 12x15 inches, and the writing was wonderfully clear and distinct, though some pages were more clear than others. Seeing my great enthusiasm the custodian permitted me to turn some of the leaves with my own hands, which was indeed a privilege. Long and lovingly I stood at that table and and lovingly I persuaded myself to leave it and so rare was the privilege of seeing the manuscript that several connected with the library pressed about to get a look at the great treasure. I told our guide to return our thanks in the strongest terms, but he was totally unable to comprehend our enthusiasm and delight. Fortunately an official who could speak German appeared and told me so when I asked him if he could speak English. I told him that manuscript was above price and its value could not be measured in terms of gold and silver and that the privilege of seeing and handling it was indeed most precious and I urged him to say so to the gentlemanly custodian, who seemed to regard the treasure with the greatest veneration and care. Finally I bowed my thanks to him in my most polite manner and we left the place, walking more on air than on the earth. I feel certain the readers of the Journal will not be disappointed with my enthusiasm, for a sight of that manuscript is worth going across the ocean.

ANGRY WATERS, STILL.

When They Reach the Wonderful "Oil Spot" Off Sabine Pass.

A freak of nature never fully described is the wonderful "oil spot," situated about ten miles south of Sabine Pass, into which flows the Sabine river to the gulf of Mexico. The river forms the boundary between the states of Louisiana and Texas. The "oil spot" extends two miles along shore and seaward about three-quarters of a mile. A storm from the northeast, by way of east to southeast, has a rate of from 300 to 700 miles across the gulf of Mexico into this mystic haven.

During a gale this spot is wonderfully defined. Looking seaward the scene is grand. An acre of towering foam marks the abrupt dissolution of the lashing seas as they thunder toward the shore. This occurs in about three fathoms, or eighteen feet of water, from which the storm driven craft, creaking and straining in every timber, emerges and suddenly finds herself reposing like a child rocked in its mother's arms, hemmed in by a wall of wrath, where the weary mariner can be lulled to rest by the roar of the winds. The place is termed the "oil spot" not from any known analysis of its nature, but simply from its conditions—it has no troubled water.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

MEND YOUR BROKEN CHINA.

Use a Cement Made With Plaster of Paris and Gum Arabic.

I had such a pretty Dresden china comb and brush tray for my dressing table which was broken into three pieces just the other day by some one dropping a heavy pair of curling irons on it. I was almost heart broken because it was part of a set, and I was afraid I could not replace it, and even if I could I did not feel that I could afford to do so.

One of my friends told me she had been successful in mending several pieces of old china which were treasured heirlooms with plaster of paris and gum arabic. Make a thick solution of gum arabic and water and into it put the plaster until the mixture becomes a paste. This is applied to the edges of the china, which are pressed firmly together.

I tried it on my tray, and it worked like magic. The solution is white, so that it does not show like glue, and, best of all, it makes such a strong joint that they tell me that the article never breaks again the same place.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Puss and the Owl.

Owls make very amusing pets, but lose the "happy family" knack as they grow older. A friend of mine had one that he wrongly kept tied to a stake by a cord. It was of that "tiger of the north woods" species, the great horned owl, and while apparently quiet, not to say sleepy, in the daytime, blinking with those great yellow eyes in the manner that has made the country people believe they are sightless in bright light, he had a surprising way of "coming to life" whenever there was any particular reason for doing so. My friend had a favorite kitten that usually gave the owl a wide berth, but one day it strayed within the danger zone. The result was that the apparently somnolent mass of brown feathers suddenly galvanized itself, a powerful claw shot out, a piteous mew was heard and then—flits Fells domestic!—Outing.

Britain and Conscription.

Although few people are aware of the fact, conscription has been part of the British constitution for 500 or 800 years. The militia law states that every Englishman between the ages of eighteen and thirty is liable to be called upon for military service and that each county must furnish a contingent in proportion to its population. At the time of the Napoleonic wars this law was actually applied, but since then it has fallen into disuse, without, however, being repealed. Every year since 1829 parliament has solemnly gone through the form of suspending for one year this ancient conscription by ballot.—Pearson's Weekly.

CORNERSTONE OF NEW ALEXANDER M. E. CHURCH IS LAID WEDNESDAY

Ceremonies Are in Charge of Rev. N. R. Johnson, the Pastor—Rev. F. A. McCarty Gives Address.

A beautiful simplicity marked the laying of the cornerstone of the new $10,000 Alexander Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon. The ceremonies were in charge of the pastor, Rev. N. R. Johnson and were witnessed by a large gathering. Rev. F. A. McCarty of this city, district superintendent, delivered the address, having for his subject, "Life's Foundation Stones."

The service was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Johnson and this was followed by a song by the choir, "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord." The 132 Psalm was then read by the entire congregation and Rev. Mr. McCarty followed with his address. He told of the importance of the work of laying foundation stones, saying that although the man at work on the cornerstone is not always as readily seen as the man at work on the cornice of a structure, his work is never-the-less more important. In life, he said, everyone should lay four foundation stones, first the physical cornerstone of good health, second the cornerstone of a broad intellect, the religious cornerstone and last a social cornerstone, that of coming into a new social consciousness.

The cornerstone was then laid by Rev. Mr. McCarty, assisted by Rev. Mr. Johnson and the building committee of the church. Mr. Johnson read the regular ritualistic services of the Methodist church and Rev. H. P. Cusic read the scripture lesson and offered prayer. In a crypt in the stone was placed a copper box containing a Bible, a Methodist church discipline, a list of the members of the church, a list of the contributors toward the new church and the amounts given, a copy of the Northwestern Christian Advocate and a copy of the Jacksonville Daily Journal. On the outside of the cornerstone was cut, "Alexander M. E. church, 1913."

PSYCHOLOGY HAS PLACE IN FOOTBALL

State of Mind Has Great Deal to Do With Success in Athletics. Special Course is Favored.

"Some day a wise college coach is going to insist upon a course in psychology as a necessary adjunct to football," says Lambert Sullivan, in the Chicago Post. "It will be just as necessary for a candidate for gridiron honors to have a credit A, as speed, weight or working knowledge of the gridiron game—at least according to the 'inside' writers, and there is no reason why it should not also be used to advantage in football, especially since psychology is an easy credit in most colleges and the men who are obliged to give three or four hours of their spare time to football usually are in search of 'soft' study."

Sometimes when one team has it over another, they call it "getting their goat," but the psychology profs probably would classify it as having the psychological advantage. Until the "psychological advantage" can be overcome, it looks as if the "Big Four" of the western gridiron would keep its ranks intact.

This mental attitude has been shown on the Illinois college field, when one team scored a few points in the fore part of the game, the opponent players would give signs of not working well. One of the things which has been a great factor in Illinois' success this year has been the fact that the men went into the games to win and the contest was not over until the time-keeper's whistle blew. The same thing was true when Illinois met Lincoln last Thanksgiving. There didn't seem much of a chance for the light local team, to make much headway against the big fast players from Lincoln. But back of the brawn and brain, was the psychological "we can do it" and the spirit was manifested in every play.

STREET FAKER MAKES HAUL.

Several Jacksonville citizens are bemoaning a lost "five-spot" and carrying genuine watches of "Cuban ore" which were "guaranteed to run" as the result of a visit to the city Tuesday night of a very smooth street faker who took his stand as the election crowds were breaking up at the northwest corner of the square and began business by offering the unheard of bargain of dollars for ninety cents. Soon he was selling rings for a quarter and giving the purchasers the quarters back. This so established him in the confidence of the victims that they were ready to do what he suggested and snapped up his razor bargains with alacrity. Then came the wonderful watches for five dollars apiece, of which he sold five. A bystander who watched the game and didn't "bite" estimated that the street-man's eloquent appeal to the pocketbook netted him at least thirty dollars.

AS OTHERS SEE US.
Bloomington (Pantagraph)—About the most significant vote from the viewpoint of Illinois citizens was that at Jacksonville on local option. Jacksonville has a population of something over 15,000. It has been dry for a number of years and in the vote yesterday a majority of the men voted dry. The surprising feature, however, was that more women voted than men and that the ratio of their vote was more than five to one against saloons.

It has been said that the women would not avail themselves of their privilege of voting or that if they did the general result would not be materially changed. The result in Jacksonville disproves both of these propositions. If the women vote in other cities as they have in Jacksonville, the saloons appear to be in for some pretty rough sledding.

VENICE VOTERS ABOLISH ALL PHASES OF PRIZE FIGHTING

Boxing Matches and Even Maintenance of Training Quarters for Pugilists Who Fight Elsewhere Are Prohibited.

Venice, Calif., Nov. 5.—Prize fighting in all its phases was abolished here today by a majority of 75 votes in an election especially called to settle the question and in which 900 voters participated. Boxing matches and even the maintenance of training quarters for pugilists who fight elsewhere are prohibited.

The campaign had been bitterly waged for weeks, one of its interesting features being speeches in favor of legitimate boxing by Rev. Baker P. Lee, pastor of Christ Episcopal church of Los Angeles.

The question came before the voters through the use of the initiative by those opposed to prize fighting. A preponderance of the women's vote is believed to have been cast against pugilism.

SALESMAN INDICTED FOR VIOLATION OF THE MANN ACT

Arthur Carey is Charged With Transporting Laura Flueker From Silver Lake, Wis., to Antioch, Ill.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Arthur Carey, a furnace salesman of Green Bay, Wis., was indicted today for violation of the Mann act. The federal grand jury acted only a few hours before the statute of limitations covering Carey's alleged offense would have expired. Carey is charged with transporting Laura Flueker from Silver Lake, Wis., to Antioch, Ill. The law requires that the indictment be made within three years of the violation of the Mann act. Carey was held to the federal grand jury at Green Bay on Monday. No grand jury was in session at Milwaukee and Carey was rushed to Chicago before it was too late.

Miss Flueker has refused to have any part in the prosecution of Carey. She endeavored to prevent his arrest and went so far as to point a revolver at the deputy marshals. She alleges that she walked cross the Wisconsin-Illinois state line with Carey.

Carey has a wife and three children in Chicago. He left them several years ago and asserts he received a notice that divorce proceedings had been started. Later he married again and his second wife died. Then he met Miss Flueker, who was 17 years old at the time.

OPPOSE RELATIONS WITH WESTERN INTER-COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE

Students and Faculty of Ann Arbor University Vote Against Resumption of Athletic Relations.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 5.—By an overwhelming majority, students, faculty and Ann Arbor alumni of the university of Michigan have voted against a resumption of athletic relations with the Western Intercollegiate conference. The result of the balloting, which has been in progress the last three days, was announced tonight as follows: In favor of returning to the conference, 960 against 2,448. The students' vote was: Yes, 911; no, 2,324; faculty vote, 39 yes; 49 no. Ann Arbor alumni vote, 10 yes; 75 no.

A dispute has arisen as to the method of counting the votes cast by outside alumni. Seventeen associations voting at associations have cast their ballots in favor of return, while nine associations have voted no. Pro-conference men want the individual ballots counted, while the anti-institutionists insist that the vote by associations should be registered. Final action on the question is in the hands of the board of university regents which will meet on November 14. What effect the vote just taken will have on their decision is problematical. Considerable outside pressure is being exerted to have the board ignore the vote entirely and put Michigan back into the intercollegiate fold.

REJOICE OVER RECENT VICTORY.

Bishops Cranston and Moore Speak of Recent Anti-Saloon Fight.

Bishop Earl Cranston and Bishop Moore, participated in the prayer service at Grace M. E. church last night, the meeting partaking of a jubilee over the recent victory of the saloon fight. Bishop Cranston complimented the women on the splendid fight they made to keep saloons out of the city and of how much it meant for the boys and girls of Jacksonville and surrounding community. Bishop Moore was a former pastor of Grace church, and he spoke most feelingly of his early associations with the church and of the pastors who had filled the pulpit since he left. He also spoke tenderly of many who have been called to a better world. Bishop Moore was also heard in a splendid address on spiritual uplift. He also took occasion to praise the women who had worked so ardently to retain the fair name of Jacksonville. The results of their efforts could not be counted in dollars and cents nor in the great moral impetus which had given the city not only in its own been given by the other cities of the great state of Illinois. Others present spoke of the recent campaign and all together it was a time of great rejoicing.

FAMOUS DYNAMITE CASE RE-OPENED AT INDIANAPOLIS

Two More Iron Workers Arraigned on Charges of Conspiracy—New Evidence to Come Before Grand Jury.

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Harry W. Jones, secretary treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, was arraigned before United States Commissioner H. S. Young at the federal building today for a preliminary hearing on the charge of conspiracy to transport explosives illegally. The case has attracted a great deal of attention owing to the fact that the case will probably have an important bearing upon the great dynamite case and all the labor officials connected with it. The United States grand jury will convene here next week and it is understood that all the new evidence which has been brought to light since the arrest and confession of George Davis, alias George O'Donnell, in New York, will be submitted to the grand jury and that Davis will repeat his confession before the members.

According to the confession of George L. Davis, a union iron worker, who admitted to the authorities in New York that he had committed numerous dynamite outrages and destroyed many non-union structures, at the behest of Harry Jones, who succeeded H. S. Hockin as secretary-treasurer of the Iron Workers' union, Jones and other officials of the union were deeply implicated in the conspiracy. Some of the revelations made by Davis strongly implicated President Ryan, who was sentenced to seven years imprisonment at the close of the great dynamite conspiracy case last year.

Davis stated in his confession that he had been chosen to kill Walter Drew, attorney for the National Erectors' association, in December, 1911, and also William J. Burns, the detective employed by Drew to unearth the dynamite conspiracy. He was to receive $5,000 for killing Drew. It appears from the confessions of Davis that the arrest of the 38 officers of the Iron Workers' union and their trial and conviction did by no means put a stop to their conspiracy against the Erectors' association and that the work of dynamiting non-union structures was carried on as before, under the direction and with the knowledge of Secretary-Treasurer Jones, President Ryan and other prominent officers of the labor organization.

Davis, according to his own statements, was in the employ of the union, but was dissatisfied with the manner in which he had been treated. A short time before his arrest he was working in Pittsburgh, Pa., but had some trouble with the local delegates of the Iron Workers' union over his failure to become a regular member of the local union. Davis refused to let him work unless he paid $25 initiation fee for becoming a member of the local union. Davis asked for time, which the delegate refused and Davis left Pittsburgh in a huff. At that psychological moment Robert Foster, a Louisville detective, who had shadowed Davis, induced Davis to get even with the union by making an open confession of his share in the dynamiting outrages. Davis went to New York and there made his sensational confession which threw a new and startling light upon the dynamite conspiracy and showed that the great conspiracy trial had not broken up the ring of conspirators.

VILLAGE BOARD OF SOUTH JACKSONVILLE HOLDS MEETING

Pass Resolutions of Thanks to W. B. Miser for Improvements in Street Lighting—Transacts Other Business.

At the regular meeting of the village board of South Jacksonville held Wednesday evening, a resolution of thanks was voted to W. B. Miser, general superintendent of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company, for improvements made in the street lighting of the village with additional cost to the board. The village has been using 32 candle-power lights and Mr. Miser had Tungsten incandescent lights installed, which give approximately four times as much light as the others.

President Hackett presided at the session and members Baxter, Graff, Hembrough and Heintz and Clerk J. R. Hill were present. A large number of properly approved claims were ordered paid and a permit was granted to the gas company to lay gas mains on East Greenwood and Jones avenues, under supervision of the street and alley committee. After passing the resolution of thanks to

Mr. Miser a number of minor matters were discussed and adjournment was taken. A copy of the resolution follows:

"Resolved: That the thanks of the village board of South Jacksonville are hereby tendered to W. B. Miser, superintendent of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company for inaugurating an improved system of lights for the village of South Jacksonville without additional expense to the board."

THOUSANDS WORK ON ROADS.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—Throughout North Carolina today, under the direction of the officials of each county, work was commenced to improve the roads of the state, following out the dictates of the proclamation of Governor Craig, setting aside today and tomorrow as North Carolina's good roads' days. The North Carolina executive set the example by donning overalls and personally helping in the work on the roads near his home. Reports from over the state indicate that fully 75,000 men and boys volunteered their services in the work of improving the highways.

THE HOMECRAFT COURSE

In the homecraft course just instituted in Wadleigh high school, New York city, the attempt to meet practical demands in girls' education is seen at its best, according to officials of the United States bureau of education. The homecraft course is for girls whose interest is in up-to-date homemaking rather than in advanced literary or scientific study. Thework is taken chiefly by students who do not intend to go to college, but who wish to make the best of their time while in high school; and it is particularly recommended for those who expect to stay in school only two years or less.

The course is both "practical" and "cultural." It answers the everyday needs of girls who mean to be real home keepers and it affords abundant opportunity for studies that are for enjoyment as well as for work. Domestic science and domestic art, with household arithmetic, study of vocations, "clothes—its care and remodeling," are prominent subjects the first year. Drawing, music, biology, English and physical training the required subject, with current history, English history and modern languages among the electives. Latin and advanced mathematics are conspicuous by their absence.

In the second year hygiene and sanitation are added to the requirements, and other studies may be chosen from a list which includes millinery, household chemistry, European and American history, history of women's work, arts and crafts, and modern languages.

Household management, a required study, is a feature of the third year of the course. Applied design and applied physics are among the subjects that may be selected by the students. In the fourth year the girls delve a little deeper into the philosophy of homecraft by means of a required course on social efficiency. They may also regale themselves with a number of more advanced studies, such as: Fundamentals of legal procedure, physiology, bacteriology and sanitation; household design and decoration.

Throughout the course emphasis is on applied, rather than theoretical knowledge; and the work is so arranged that regardless of whether a girl completes the four-year course or leaves before she finishes she has acquired a fund of workable ideas of direct value to her in the immediate problems of her life. At the same time the course is not narrowing. Girls who take it may, if they desire, elect some of the more usual studies from the regular high school courses. Furthermore, they are prepared to meet the admission requirements of the Columbia university school of household arts and similar higher institutions for young women.

NEGROES TO GO TO AFRICA.

Sixty Families of Parsons, Kan., Sail Dec. 15 to Form Republic.

Parsons, Kan., Nov. 5.—Sixty families from the colored residents of Parsons will be part of the first load of emigrants to go to the Gold coast, West Africa, where they will establish a colony. They will leave Parsons early in December to sail from New York Dec. 15. They are only a few of a large number of negroes who will leave this section of the country about that time.

"We are going back to Africa, our home, to build up a republic of our own," the leaders declared sadly. "The negro has no chance in the United States. The unions bar us from practically every industry. If we are to make any progress whatever we must set up a nation for ourselves where we can work out our own salvation. We've learned a lot in this country and we can apply our knowledge with practical benefits in Africa."

The first emigration is to be followed by others in the spring if the present plans are carried out, an African emigration bureau having been organized to carry out the plans. The work in Kansas and Oklahoma is being conducted by Chief Sams of the bureau.

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

President Van Duzee delivered his annual address and reports of the officers and other routine business filled the rest of the session. Many noted experts in nut culture are scheduled to deliver addresses and after the closing session on Friday the delegates will go to Wharton, Tex., by special train to visit the native pecan groves in that locality.

TO PLAN MICHIGAN SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN.

Jackson, Mich., Nov. 5.—A large and enthusiastic attendance augurs well for the success of the 28th annual convention of the Michigan Equal Suffrage association, which opened its session here today. The delegates were called to order by Clara B. Black, the president of the association, who delivered her annual address. The convention promises to be of considerable importance as a thorough reorganization of the association is planned which is considered necessary in view of the defeat of the suffrage party at the last state election. There are six candidates in the field for the position of president of the association and a spirited campaign is expected. The gathering will adjourn on Friday.

Latest Photos of Pasteur Institute In Paris, Where Hunt For Cancer Germ Is Going On.

The Pasteur institute in Paris, which recently celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary, is conducting an extensive scientific campaign in search of the cancer germ in the hope of stopping the progress of this dread disease. In the accompanying picture are shown the Metchnikoff section of the institute, the cages containing guinea pigs and rabbits, from which the doctors get serum after inoculating them with microbes; also Dr. Roux, chief of the institute, in his laboratory.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

Tammany out of the running augurs well for racing in and about New York for at least four years to come. The tiger's assessment upon the Jockey club quit with the dumping of Gas House Charley Murphy into the North river on Tuesday. This assessment was levied in the form of cash and preferred positions for its henchmen at the different tracks; also the blackball demanded a monopoly of the back line, or the $1 book row, as well as control of the field books, which are the ones where the man with only a "shoestring" is enabled to "lay" his money three ways on a long shot.

Chancellor Day of Syracuse, N. Y., university has offered a travel excuse for the defeat of his football squad by Ann Arbor last Saturday. His players attended a theatrical performance on Friday evening, and after retiring it took them so long to assimilate the sensations that they were in no condition on Saturday afternoon to play football. Syracuse always has been noted for the easy-going gait of her city council and police force, and it would be a splendid idea if the good chancellor would have the city fathers pass an ordinance prohibiting shows of the "Sam T. Jack Creole Beauties" character and the "Sensational Nymphs from Gay Broadway" during the football season; then future Tartans would have nothing to disturb their slumbers except the roaring waves in the Erie canal and the Boston baked B's served in dormitory hall.

Trouble comes in carload lots to the purple of Northwestern university. Since the beginning of the season Coach Grady has suffered more loss through injuries than all of the western squads put together. Tuesday the jinx hit the team a terrific jolt when Greer, who has been playing quarter and half back, was taken to a Chicago hospital suffering from hernia. He will be out of the game for the season. Whiting and Grub also were added to the hospital list and will be out for the season owing to injuries.

Saturday will be an off-day among the football leaders. In the east interest will center in the Princeton-Harvard game at Princeton, this being the only game of importance in that section of the country. In the west all of the scheduled contests are of minor importance, and will have little bearing upon the inter-collegiate conference championship.

Boston is suffering one of those interesting "sporting events," which, as regular as the winds from the fishing banks in November, blows up in the Hub every winter. The bean-eaters are enduring a six days' bicycle race, and the cow-paths around Court and Howard streets are jammed with crowds eager to throw their money at the "snowbirds."

The students of the University of Nebraska and the athletic board of the university are standing behind Chancellor Avery in his ultimatum that the color line will not be drawn by Nebraska. The college will play Ross, the colored guard, against Kansas on Nov. 15, or there will be no game. This was the reply sent to the athletic board of the Kansas team yesterday.

Princeton on Saturday will inaugurate its plan of numbering its players on the field. The Tigers are endeavoring to have Harvard and Yale follow suit, but the coaches at Cambridge and New Haven will not countenance the innovation. Each one of the representatives of "Old Nassau" will be placarded with a large red number fastened to the back of the shirt of the uniform.

Out-on-the-limb players were well rewarded at Latonia on Tuesday when old John Furlong romped home in the feature race with a juicy price against him. There was little to the race, as a Newfoundland dog carrying the weight, 108 pounds, would have had no trouble in lowering the time, 2:19 for 1 1/8 miles.

Charley White is the hard luck boxer of them all. Jimmy Duffy, like Ad Wolgast, has run out in his engagement with him carded at Milwaukee for next Monday night.

Packey McFarland on Tuesday signed for another engagement in the squared circle. Next month, the date has not yet been agreed upon, he will box the Chicago Italian "Hugo Kelley," at Kenosha, Wis., both boxers to weigh 142 pounds at 3 o'clock upon the afternoon of the match.

Eddie McGoorty has been debarred by the Wisconsin boxing commission for six months for his failure to keep his engagement with Jack Dillon at Milwaukee, because the promoter's price was not sufficient. He threatens court proceedings, but will change his mind when he is told the can may be made perpetual.

NEW STYLE REPORT CARDS ADOPTED IN CITY SCHOOLS

System Is Recommended by National Educational Association. Urged By Superintendent to Visit Schools.

Supt. Gore has introduced some new report cards into the public schools and cards were sent yesterday to parents of children in a number of grades. The cards adopted are a part of the National school record system. The superintendent has addressed the following communication to parents explaining the new system.

Communication to parents:
This new report card which we are sending to you calls for an explanation. We are making a change for the sake of having something different. In our schools there has been no permanent records except such records as have been kept by the Ward principles. We have adopted "The National School Record System," a system recommended by the National Educational Association. This record system consists of certain forms by which the progress of a pupil is kept in a permanent form from year to year making it possible to know the scholarship, deportment, absence, and other data at any time of the child's school history. This system promises to be of great value in keeping track of our school enrollment, cases of non-promotion, cases of truancy, will be a proof of good or poor teaching, and will enable us to strengthen any weak point there may be in your course of study.

System Used in High School.
This report card belongs to that system. It is not exactly what we want but we are going to give it a trial and later we will make whatever changes the parents and teachers see fit. If you will notice in the lower left hand corner there is an explanation of a system of marking which we have not used before in the grades below the high school. The monthly grades will be marked "A" or "D" according to whether the work is acceptable or deficient and the semester grades will be marked in figures as usual. These monthly grades are so different from figures that we are sure that some of the parents will not be satisfied with them. We ask you to be patient and give the system a trial. It has been very successful in our high school.

Next month we will have more to say on the subject of reports. At this time, let us tell you confidentially that we teachers do not value written reports much anyway. We want to meet you parents. A good talk is worth a dozen reports. Come visit our schools. Next month we will report the number of visitors at each ward.

LYNNVILLE SCHOOL IN PROSPEROUS CONDITION

Visit There Wednesday Showed Good Work Being Done—Names of Directors, Teachers and Pupils.

Wednesday the writer had the pleasure of a visit with the schools at the neighboring town of Lynnville. The ride out there was very pleasant as the roads were excellent and all nature was smiling. The foliage was gorgeous, the grass refreshed by the recent rains while some men were seen fallow plowing turning up the rich, black soil for which this county is justly noted.

The visitor was kindly welcomed by the principal, Mr. Frank Truesdale, who said he had been looking for such a visit. The pupils from the primary room were invited in, and all paid respectful attention to a talk on foreign lands. The young people composing these two schools are bright and intelligent and such as afford a visitor pleasure when he talks to them. They were much interested in the people on the other side of the globe and showed an intelligent appreciation of the story told them. The speaker told them he hoped they would ask him a lot of questions and they accommodated him all right and kept him answering as long as he had time to stay.

The class of questions was good showing a keen appreciation of the address and a desire to know more of the subject.

The school house is in better condition than it was a few years ago when it was seen by the writer. A little paint and some fixing up about the premises, a little repair on some of the seats would be well. In the large room there are but two or three pictures on the walls which would look better if there were portraits of some of the great men of the land hanging there.

The schools are reasonably well supplied with books, dictionaries and apparatus and the teachers said the directors were willing to get things asked for. In the primary room Miss McKinney has encouraged her pupils to make decorative hangings for the walls which are much improved by the work of the children.

The teachers are Mr. Frank Truesdale of the advanced room and Miss Sallie G. McKinney of the primary.

The directors are: Harry Coultas, Edgar Watson, Charles Gibbs.

The pupils are:

Beginners: Helen Coultas, Lena Andres, Mary Murray, Gayle Gibbs, Paul Watson, Gerald Heaton.

First grade: Charles Watson, Bertha Todd, Louise Tearneyhough, Keith Whewell.

Second grade: Leo Murray, Willie Murray, Geraldine Gayre, Blanche Hills, Gilbert Todd, Amy Harney.

Third grade: Wilfred Coultas, Addie Todd, Marie Fitzgerald, Ethel Baldwin.

Fourth grade: Theodore Gorela, Alva Anders, Mary Whewell, Oertel Redwine.

The following pupils have moved from the district lately: Elizabeth Jolly, Flossy Jolly, Ethel Hundley, Goldie Hundley, Nellie Hundley, Glenn Vanbeber.

Advanced room Fifth grade: Ralph Heaton, Clarence Andres, Lorena Watson, Eddie Coates, Fred Coultas, Edna Coultas, Dorothy Coultas, Besie Gorela, Alvin Coates, Dale Blackburn.

Seventh year: Clarence Blackburn, Edward Fitzpatrick, George Lazenby, Rose Lazenby, Bertha Coates, Alma Redwine, Bernice Coultas, Margaret Fitzpatrick.

Sixth year: Dove Burnett, Ruth Harney, Margaret Heaton, Hildreth Watson, Jos. Fitzpatrick, Sherman Coultas, Wilbur Gibbs, Lee Parker, Opal Van Beber and Bertha Hindley moved from district.

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

APPLE CROP GOOD.

Ray Pierce of White Hall was a business visitor to Hillview recently and while there took occasion to inquire about the apple crop. Three hundred and fifteen car loads of apples have already been shipped from that apple center and when the first freeze came there were still 5,000 barrels unpacked. All of these will not be a total loss, however, and the men are busily engaged in packing them ready for shipment.

NOTED EDUCATORS AT OMAHA.
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 5.—Many noted educators from various sections of the country are in attendance at the annual gathering of the State Teachers' association which opened its session of three days here today. Among them are President Melklejohn of Amherst college, Prof. O. T. Carson, former commissioner of education of Ohio; Chancellor Avery of the state university; Prof. E. R. Hedrick, head of mathematics, University of Missouri; Dr. Nahtaniel Butler of the University of Chicago, and several others.

GUY FAWKES DAY.

London, Nov. 5.—Young folk throughout England celebrated Guy Fawkes day, the anniversary of the "Gunpowder Plot" of 1605, in the customary manner today by burning effigies of Guy Fawkes and his co-conspirators. According to history Guy Fawkes and his co-conspirators were caught red handed in the vaults under the house of commons during a session of parliament in the reign of James I, while they were engaged in preparing to blow up the house of parliament with a mine containing 100 kegs of powder.

$10,000 Worth of Fine Merchandise From a Bankrupt Stock to be Slaughtered

A great manufacturer's stock—one of Chicago's most prominent manufacturers was forced to take over thousands of dollars worth of clothing for men and young men. In order to satisfy the claims against a chain of three stores who found themselves in financial difficulty and were forced to close their doors, was purchased by us for instant cash at prices so that we are enabled to offer the stock at prices that will delight the buying public of Jacksonville.

The stocks in their entirety comprise merchandise of the highest standard such as is sold only by the finest store in every city.

In the clothing department you will find men's and young men's suits and overcoats with labels bearing manufacturer's name that stamp the garments as the finest the world produces. You will find furnishings, boys' clothing, shirts, hosiery, etc., bearing the names of the standard brands which you are accustomed to wear.

Every article is absolutely new. The style is decidedly up-to-date, and is absolutely of the finest quality. Through the extreme stringency of the money market caused by the new tariff regulations the three stores in question were unable to meet their obligations and were forced to turn over their stock to the manufacturers. For the past week this gigantic stock has been piled into our store, THE ILLINOIS STOCK EXCHANGE, 13 West Side of Square, and seems to be no end of it.

Coming as it does at the opening of the winter season when our own stock is complete, having ourselves bought sufficient in expectation of a large fall and winter trade, we are now forced to merge and remark every item in the entire stock, so that everything in the store will be offered to the public at the lowest price ever known.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 20c per box The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. (Adv.)

WOMAN SUFFERED TEN YEARS

From Nervousness Caused by Female Ills—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Auburn, N. Y. — "I suffered from nervousness for ten years, and had such organic pains that sometimes I would lie in bed four days at a time, could not eat or sleep and did not want anyone to talk to me or bother me at all. Sometimes I would suffer for seven hours at a time. Different doctors did the best they could for me until four months ago I began giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and now I am in good health." — Mrs. WILLIAM H. GILL, 15 Pleasant Street, Auburn, New York.

"Doctor's Daughter Took It."

St. Cloud, Minn. — "I was so run down by overwork and worry that I could not stand it to have my children talk aloud or walk heavy on the floor. One of my friends said, 'Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I know a doctor's daughter here in town who takes it and she would not take it if it were not good.'"

"I sent for the Compound at once and kept on taking it until I was all right." — Mrs. BERTHA M. QUICKSTADT, 727 5th Avenue, S., St. Cloud, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon as the most efficient remedy for female ills. Why don't you try it?

"THE MAN WHO DOES THINGS"

Just as the brain and nervous systems are highly developed by activity, so is the muscular and bony system. The whole make-up of the man who "does things" suggests activity. Muscularity is his predominant physical capital. His face is square rather than triangular. Upon the body there is little surplus flesh. It is broadest at the squarely set shoulders, from which it tapers to the feet. Whenever the position demands activity and the ability to ride over obstacles directly to the goal, the motive ty epis your man. With other necessary qualifications, he makes an excellent traveling salesman. His qualities are likely to find expression in agriculture, manufacturing, transportation and construction. Professionally, when other characteristics so incline him, he makes an excellent engineer, surgeon and inventor. Men who drive racing automobiles or skim the skies in aeroplanes, baseball players and all other athletes, prize fighters and horsemen, all belong to this active type. Army and navy officers, sea captains and explorers also come under this head.

Physicians maintain that a man's vitality and recuperative powers depend upon the soundness and reliability of his digestion. A man in whom the processes of digestion and assimilation are vigorous and in a sense predominant, tends to roundness of face and figure. His largest measurement is about the girth. His conspicuous physical characteristics are the areoprotuberant abdomen, the stout legs, the round, abundantly filled out face, perhaps even the suggestion of a double chin. Mobility is not his leading characteristic. He moves slowly, is not given to exercise, prefers to sit in a well upholstered chair before his desk and issue instructions. If he does go in for out of door sports, his enthusiasms are not hunting or mountain climbing; his athletic ideal is golf. He frequently has the corresponding social attractions; he is good natured, enjoys the society of his kind, loves to tell and hear a funny story, and often times he is endowed with a laugh that is Olympian. From all this it does not follow that the stout man is necessarily ineffective. As a matter of fact, efficiency of a particular kind frequently goes with the character. Great judges are more often than not representatives of this type. Bank presidents, the heads of large corporations, can commonly be classified in this division. In less exalted business positions we find these men among butchers, grocery store capitalists, or thrifty German delicatessen proprietors. In an office, the best executives are often of this type. Such men are slow going but sure—From "A Scientific Employment Plan," by Burton J. Hendrick, in the American Review of Reviews for November.

DID CHILD WAKE UP CROSS AND FEVERISH?

Look Mother! If Tongue is Coated Give "California Syrup of Figs" to Clean the Bowels.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" then look and see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Company. Counterfeits are being sold here. Don't be fooled!

In the Morning.

Through the gates of dawn is driven
Mighty Phoebus in his car.
And the gloom of night is riven
By his lance hurled afar.
Now the winds of dawn awaken.
With a bugle note they call,
And my resolution's shaken,
But I shan't get up at all!

Now the little birds are singing
Their sweet notes in the trees,
And the cock's shrill cry goes ringing
In defiance down the breeze.
Now the world begins to shuffle,
And repose from all has fled,
And they rise and don their duffle,
But I shall not leave the bed!

I can hear the dishes clatter;
I can hear the housemaid yawn.
Now I hear the children chatter
As they put their garments on.
Now I hear the misad calling,
"Do you mean to sleep all day?"
And the thought of it is galling,
I shall get up right away!"

STOCK MARKET MAKES GENERAL ADVANCE

SENTIMENT UNDERGOES NO CHANGE, REMAINING BEAR-ISH.

Rise Indicates That Over-hanging Unfavorable Influences, so Far as
They Can Be Gauged at Present,
Have Spent Their Force on the Decline and Traders Are Awaiting Further Developments.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Nov. 5.—Although the stock market today was under virtually the same influences as those which depressed prices recently, there was a general advance. Trade reports, especially from the steel and iron industry, were anything but encouraging and the Mexican situation reached a point where the street was prepared for highly important news at any time. That stocks rose under these conditions implied no change of sentiment which remained bearish. The rise indicated merely that the overhanging unfavorable influences, so far as they can be gauged at present spent their force on the decline and that traders were awaiting further developments.

Short sellings had been carried to a point where it strengthened the market's technical position and shorts who attempted to cover found it necessary to bid up prices to secure stocks. Trading was highly professional and covering seemed to be largely responsible for the upturn. Most of the advances reached were in the first hour in which the leaders made net gains of 1 to 2 points. Trading thereafter was increasingly dull but gains were well held.

THE SPIRIT OF PUBLIC SERVICE.

Harry A. Wheeler of the Chicago Association of Commerce, made a plain business talk in Decatur which would have done our business men good to hear. Mr. Wheeler spoke of the spirit of public service, and one of his points which especially applicable in this city was that it is necessary for all members of a commercial organization to devote the same energy and zeal to the welfare of the city as do the officers of the club. Mr. Wheeler said in part:

"The Chamber of Commerce may have a tremendous influence upon the philanthropies of the city. I know of no finer work which a chamber of commerce can do than that of inciting in its members the spirit of public service to bring them to realize that they owe to the community a debt other than that which is collected in taxes. The giving spirit—if every man would open his heart—what would it do for the world? You would have no trouble in getting this hospital which you are trying so hard to get and have so nearly got. If every man whose business success has been built up in the community does owe something to that community besides his taxes and if every man whom the community has helped to success would possess the giving spirit, it would quickly make that city the model for the world.

"Eight years ago Chicago was the most self centered, selfish, indifferent money grabbing, dollar getting city in the world. About that time a new spirit was born in the city. It was realized that if Chicago would hold its place among the great cities of the world its business men must do something for the city. This was the birth of the spirit of civil service. The Chicago Association of Commerce was organized and it now has a membership of 4,000. Five hundred men are serving on its committees. It has developed a spirit of charity, of brotherhood, of helpfulness, a fraternal feeling towards other cities in the state. It has touched and changed the lives of ten thousand men who have come in contact with it and it will ultimately leaven to the whole lump.

"There is one word I want to press home. No matter how enterprising your secretary may be or how self sacrificing your president or how attentive your board of directors, don't leave all the work of the association to them. Do your part toward making the Chamber of Commerce a real service to your community. Be willing to serve on its committees and give some of your time to its work. Every problem, civic or governmental, should be studied by a group of men who have taken the time to familiarize themselves with it. And the meanest thin is the spirit of criticism for the man who is willing to tackle the job, to accuse him of ulterior motives."

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapepsin" Digests 300 Grains Food, Ending All Stomach Misery in Five Minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with noxious odor.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil-meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuffs, or alfalfa meal.

WHAT "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE DOES.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby saving one-third of the feed bill, one-third of the labor, one-third of the risk, increasing profits one-third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, and more fat, hence market-topper hogs. "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" tankage fed hogs ship well with small shrink. While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy. Manufactured by the J. Bart Johnson Visits Chicago to Secure Fixtures for New Department Which He Will Soon Equip.

J. Bart Johnson, the piano man, went to Chicago Wednesday for the purpose of securing fixtures for the equipment of the second floor of his business establishment for exclusive use as a player piano department. It is his intention to equip the rooms that there will be nothing in Illinois outside Chicago which will surpass them for the purpose for which they are intended.

It is Mr. Johnson's intention to devote his energies more strongly than ever to the player piano department of his business and it is carrying out this determination that he has made the journey to the city by the lake.

ELECTION THEMES.

"Well I marvel as I think of that election Tuesday and the more I think about it the more I am impressed with what an epoch-making day it really was. You see I was a judge in one of the voting precincts and so I had good chance to see the inside workings."

"Literally speaking, the lame, the halt and blind came to our polling place to vote. There were several women so aged that their eyesight was dimmed and they could not see to mark their ballots and one of them was wholly blind. When a judge of election asked how she wanted to vote the reply was sharp and quick: 'Young man I want to down whiskey.'"

"The law as you know provides that only one person at a time shall be in a voting booth and as the women came in so rapidly we had the hardest kind of work making them understand that two of them could not enter a booth at once. Quite naturally they wanted to hurry things along and also to help each other in seeing to it that the ballots were properly marked."

"In a number of instances women who noticed that an election official put his initials on the ballot he handed them also wrote their names or initials below the officials when they retired to the voting booths."

"The rule is for the voter to fold the ballot in handing it back to the judge to slip into the ballot box and over and over again we would say: 'Ladies, please fold your ballots.' Almost invariably came the answer: 'We don't care who knows how we vote.'"

They tell me that in one voting precinct there were over six hundred ballots cast by women and that the election judges had to throw out only twelve of that large number because of improper or insufficient marking, and when it is considered that for most of the women that this was the first voting experience it was really marvelous that no more errors were made. True many of the ballots were marked in unusual ways but few of them left any doubt as to the intentions of the voters. In one instance the woman voter had taken a ballot and had written plainly where the word 'no' appears, 'No, do not want saloons,' and then signed her name. The judges had no difficulty in determining what that woman wanted.

"The organization of the women was something really wonderful and it worked perfectly. Every woman did her duty and while there was some joking among them at the polls it was very apparent that for practically all of them there was of the idea that they were engaged in a very serious business. That the matter of 'voting early' had been impressed again and again upon the women was proved beyond question in one district where four women a minute voted during three hours without interruption."

"One is impressed still further with the organization when the fact is remembered that out of all the dozens of captains and leaders, the 3,635 women voters, no one woman was paid a cent. In such an organization of men there would have been many paid workers, men who were not selling their services in any offensive way, but who were remunerated for taking the time from regular work and devoting it to the interests of some candidate or for some issue. In other days too there would have been many among such a large number of voters who would have been paid in one way or another for voting. Not so with the women, however. The organization moved with splendid smoothness, a smoothness which did not come from having the machinery oiled with money. The leaders and the privates who marched in the ranks were busy doing what they believed their bounden duty. They were engaged in a battle for the home and were expecting no other reward than the commendation of their consciences and the clean city conditions resulting."

"Politicians and men generally are just beginning to realize that a new condition presents itself in Jacksonville since the rights of suffrage have been given to woman so far as matters of public policy and municipal officers are concerned. They had thought about this matter in a general way before the election but when they looked over the returns and found that women voted on the saloon question there came a new vision as to the part that women will take in municipal government now. When the light bond proposition comes to a vote the decision will rest largely with them. In choosing city officers they would be likely to rule although it is very probable too that only upon the saloon question would there be such a general outpouring of the women voters."

"And there is no joking about the statement that white suffrage provisions remain as they are today that any man who wants to be elected to a city office or wants to boost a certain measure had better have the women for him."

ATHLETIC RELATIONS ESTABLISHED ONCE MORE

Quincy High School Will Come Here For Game Tomorrow. Will Be Guests of Honor at Dance and at Illinois-Millikin Football Game.

After a suspension of athletic relations with the Quincy high school for some time, the team from that city will come here Friday to contest against the J. H. S. eleven. The visitors will not only have the privilege of playing against a fast team, but will also be guests of honor at a dancing party that evening and on Saturday will be guests of honor of the high school boys to the big college game between Millikin university of Decatur and Illinois college. The Quincy boys and the rooters who accompany the team are anticipating a big time and Supt. Bauman of Quincy gave his consent to changing the date from Saturday to Friday, on account of the college game.

Not much of a line has been gotten on the Gem City lads. Earlier in the season they played a close game with Keokuk, defeating them by a small score. Jacksonville proved a dreadful foe to Keokuk, but just what Quincy has done since their game with Keokuk is not known. Coach Buland has all his crimples back in the line-up and expects to give the Adams county boys a good interesting hard fought contest. Recitation at the high school will be so arranged that the pupils will be given a holiday in the afternoon. The weather promises to be ideal and consequently a record breaking crowd is anticipated.

An enthusiastic yell practice was held by the high school students in preparation for the game just before the opening of school yesterday afternoon. One of the songs was written with special application to the Friday game. The tune is "Ach, Mein Lieber Augustine" and the words are:

"Rub it into Quincy high, Quincy high, Quincy high,
"Rub it into Quincy high, Quincy skidoo,
"Yes we can tie a can to every Quincy man
"Rub it into Quincy high, Quincy skidoo.

VICE CRUSADE ON IN KANSAS CITY

L. Newton Wylder, Formerly of This City Taking an Active Part in the Campaign.

With the filing of twenty-seven additional injunction suits against owners of property in Kansas City, alleged to have been used for immoral purposes, forty-one suits have been filed in the circuit court of that city, by L. Newton Wylder and E. R. Morrison, attorneys for the Society for the Prevention of Commercialized Vice.

"The remarkable feature of these injunction actions" said Mr. Wylder, "is the alacrity displayed by owners against whom action was filed to appear, pay costs and acknowledge judgment of the court. We are applying the common law governing civil action against nuisances, instead of criminal proceedings prescribed by statute, thus doing away with the inconvenient and tedious process of trial by jury."

When the fight was first started against the red light district of the city by the society it was said that the thing could not be done. Mr. Wylder and his partner started out and in less than two weeks time had about seventy-five places closed. They have the backing of some of the best citizens of Kansas City, and the fight promises to be a lively one for several weeks. The press is giving considerable space to the work of the crusaders. The many friends of Mr. Wylder will be glad to know that he is building up a good record as an attorney and that he is fearless in his efforts to clean up the city.

10 cts. tonight, the Grand. "Kitty and the Baby." Great show.

LEAVES FOR WASHINGTON.

Practical Overcoats

There was a time when overcoats were either style garments or storm garments. Not so now.

The present vogue for heavy materials, such as Chinchillas, Shetlands, etc., the shawl or convertible collars, and the three-quarter or ulsterette length, so combine comfort with style as to make the most fashionable service garments. We emphasize this in the large variety of Overcoats we are showing now.

This is the logical store to buy your Overcoat, where style and price are equally as pleasing. Prices range from $7.50 to $30.00.

HATS

Velour hats are the big thing in the cities and green the color. We show every variety of style and shade, brown, black, verde and green. $5.00 to $8.50—Others hats $1 to $5.
